SENTIMENT IN CASE DIVIDED

Fate of All Nine Defendants Delivered to Depend on Outcome of Case Against Wealthy and Influential Man.

LINCOLN CENTER, Kan., Nov. 15.—An admission of guilt in the "tar party" case came today. Edward Ricord, the Beverly barber, admitted that he deceived Miss Mary Chamberlain, the school teacher, to the point near Shady Bend, where she was "tared" August 7 last. He asked that he be taken immediately before Judge Dallas Glover and be permitted to enter a plea of guilty. This was done. Sentence was suspended until after the trial of the other accused men. Ricord has been in jail here for the last three months awaiting action on an appeal from a justice court's sentence of one year for complicity in the attack on Miss Chamberlain. He was the first man arrested in connection with the "tar party" case. It is alleged he was given $5 for his part in the affair.

According to Miss Chamberlain, she accompanied Ricord on the night of the attack under the impression that he was taking her to a dance. Ricord expects sentence as a result of his confession.

Alleges Prejudice.
Attorneys for both sides in the case spent the greater part of today collecting witnesses and evidence to be used tomorrow, when the application for change of venue of Everett G. Clark, accused of leading the attack on Miss Chamberlain, comes up for hearing. Clark contends that prejudice exists against him in this county.

Many witnesses are to be called tomorrow. Among them are several newspaper men. The defense asserts that many newspaper reports of the affair were highly colored and thus tended to prejudice the public mind against Clark. It is further charged that Prosecutor McCannless forced Edward Ricord to give a reporter an interview, bringing the prisoner from the jail late at night for that purpose.

Opinion is divided as to how long it would take to obtain a jury in this county should the motion for a change of venue be overruled. By a recent decision of the Kansas supreme court wide latitude is permitted in jury selection. It being held that a man who has formed an opinion in a case from reading newspaper reports of it is not necessarily disqualified to sit on a jury.

Sympathy for Men.
Sentiment in the case is not wholly with Miss Chamberlain. Friends of Clark and the eight other defendants have been very active in creating sympathy for the accused men. Judge Grover has announced his intention of holding night sessions.

Interest in the case centers about Clark, who is wealthy and influential. It is generally considered that the fate of the eight other defendants, who are less widely known than Clark, will depend largely upon the outcome of the case. Clark is quoted as having said he will spend his entire fortune, if necessary, to avoid imprisonment.

MINNEAPOLIS POLITICIAN GIVEN INDETERMINATE TERM

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 15.—Fred A. Briggs, Minneapolis politician, was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the state prison today, having been convicted of robbery for planning the holding up of Martin Brennan by Jerry McCarthy, alias Tom Hatch, a Minnesota and Iowa bandit. McCarthy later was killed by Patrolman Olinger, after the policeman had received word from which he, too, died.

CARNEGIE FOUNDATION IN SESSION IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The trustees of the Carnegie foundation held their annual meeting here today and later Mr. Carnegie joined them at luncheon. The trustees included the presidents of twenty leading colleges and universities, with a sprinkling of bankers. It was announced that Mr. Carnegie had turned over to the trustees $1,000,000 in 5 per cent bonds of the United States steel corporation, the first installment of the gift of $5,000,000 which Mr. Carnegie offered to the foundation in March, 1908.

Coyote Pack Chases Party in Buggy for Miles Over Prairie

MEADE, Kan., Nov. 15.—A pack of coyotes, which are ordinarily afraid of man, chased F. A. Norris and two women relatives for several hours across the prairies near here last night. The party was driving home from here in a buggy. A large amount of fresh meat was carried in the vehicle and it is supposed this attracted the animals.
All the coyotes did not begin to follow the party at one time. At first there were only a few in the pack. Then several larger animals joined the band, and soon some of the bulkier and hungrier ones dashed at the horses. Norris leaped from the buggy and struck some of the animals with a whip. To his surprise, they turned on him and showed fight.
Being unarmed, Norris was badly frightened. He managed to return to the buggy seat unharmed, and then lashed his horses into a gallop in an effort to escape the hungry pack. The coyotes proved good runners, however.
As a last resort several chunks of fresh meat were thrown out to the animals and this checked the attack until the party reached a town.

Owen Makes More Charges Against Dr. Wiley's Enemies

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 15.—United States Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma created a sensation at today's session of the Transmississippi Commercial congress, when he declared he had every reason to believe that the same people who fought Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, were now furnishing money to oppose the movement looking to the establishment of a national department of health.
Senator Owen had delivered a set speech strongly urging the necessity for the new department. Finally he departed from his written address to assert that vast sums of money were being spent by those antagonistic to the idea.
"I have every reason to believe," he said, "that this money is being supplied by the same people who have been manufacturing impure drugs and foodstuffs to fight Dr. Harvey W. Wiley."
Senator Owen's remarks were applauded and at the conclusion of his speech a resolution endorsing the move to create the proposed department of health was presented and read. Action on the resolution will be taken later.

General Strike in Torron Imperils the American Residents

TORRON, Mexico, Nov. 15.—A general strike has been declared here, resulting in a serious condition. The bakers have joined the movement and a bread famine is threatened; house servants are quitting their places, while the market place has been closed and no street cars are running. Five thousand workmen, including smaller employees, are idle. A thousand federal soldiers are on the way here from Monterrey.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 15.—The withdrawal of 800 federal troops from Torron, Mexico, leaves Americans there in great danger, according to a telegram received from Torron by a local business man today.

Allen Says America Behind in Aviation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—With an underlying air of bitterness General James Allen, chief signal officer of the army, declares in his annual report that although the United States was the first nation to recognize the aeroplane for military purposes, and carried out the first official test of that invention at Fort Myer in 1908, such phenomenal progress in the science and has been made abroad that this country "has been left far behind in securing practical equipment and organization for the use of this indispensable adjunct to war."
Failure to find the necessary officer to be trained as aviators and lack of funds are said to furnish the explanation for this situation.

General Allen says the most notable progress in military aeronautics has been accomplished by France, Germany and England. The French have perfected a particularly effective aeromarine corps, which was thoroughly tried out with twenty aeroplanes in recent army maneuvers.

Republican Government at Amoy
Addresses Note to Consuls Re-

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—A Hong Kong cable to the Chinese daily paper here today says that Nanking has been captured by the revolutionists.
Commander Li Yuen Heng, according to the daily papers' advices, has telegraphed to Canton asking for an army to join his forces for an attack on Peking. Foreign guards, the dispatch said, had been withdrawn from Canton.
The virtual acceptance of the premiership of the Chinese government by Yuan Shi Kai, the significance of which has been variously interpreted, does not indicate that the revolutionists will consider any proposition or compromise which includes the retention of the throne of the Manchu dynasty.

This is made plain in a cablegram received today from Shanghai, where General Li Yuen Heng, the rebel commander, through a personal report issued a statement reiterating in no uncertain terms the declaration that the revolutionists will consider no terms of peace while the Chinese sceptre is in the hands of a Manchu.

Yuan Shi Kai Accepts.
PEKING, Nov. 15.—The most important development at the capital today was the publication in the official Gazette of Yuan Shi Kai's expression of thanks to the throne for its appointment of him as premier. This is regarded as tantamount to his acceptance of the office.

That arrangements are being made for the possible retirement of the royal family to Je-Hol, is believed, following the publishing of an imperial edict simultaneously ordering Pu Ting, the tartar general at Je-Hol, the emperor's summer residence, to vacate in favor of Hsi-Liang, formerly viceroy of Manchuria, a trusted counselor to the throne. This step will be taken only as a last resort, however, as it is generally felt that should the court leave Peking the throne would be lost forever to the Manchu dynasty.

The provincial assembly of Nehi 15 today adopted a memorial to the throne, favoring the establishment of a republic with Yuan Shi Kai as president. The assembly has been accused of inaction and it is possible the move is only a pretense at doing something.

AMOI, China, Nov. 15.—The republicans, who took formal possession of the city yesterday, have issued an address to the foreign consuls, in which the neutrality of the latter is requested and assurance given that their consulates and their property, including the churches, will be protected.

The city remained quiet today. The American cruiser Saratoga and gunboat Quilon will sail for the north. The British cruiser Monmouth is relieving the British steamer Rosalie.

Hai Cheng, on the main land, southwest of Amoy, has gone over to the revolutionists. The city magistrate has been made a prisoner.

Chang Chow, twenty-four miles west of here, reports fighting there.

Word comes from Tsuan-Chow, a seaport fifty miles northeast of Amoy, that the local officials have fled and the rough element is in control.

Will Send Troops from Manila

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The state department has practically decided to send a regiment of troops from Manila to Chin Wing Tao, a seaport in China about 20 miles from Peking on the gulf of Pechili. The purpose is to perform an international duty under the Boxer treaty in keeping open the line of communication between Peking and the sea.

Celebration at Plattsmouth

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Nov. 15.—(Special Telegram.)—The celebration of the opening of the new Pollock-Duff motor bridge spanning the Platte river north of this city was in charge of the Plattsmouth Commercial club. President T. H. Pollock presided at a meeting held in the Parmelee theater this afternoon which organized the Omaha-Kansas City Scenic Highway association and elected officers to the same.
S. A. Searle, president of the Omaha Automobile association, was made president, and R. A. Duff of Nebraska City, Colonel J. J. Derrig of Omaha and J. C. Gibson, president of the Atchison (Kan.) Automobile association, were elected vice presidents. J. C. Howe of Auburn was elected secretary and treasurer. There is to be an executive committee of one member for each town and city through which the route runs.

The meeting was attended by about 150 good roads boosters from Omaha, who came in autos, and formed the first procession to cross the new bridge. Delegates were here from nearly all of the towns between Plattsmouth and Kansas City.

Congratulations Given

Addresses were made by Harry Lowrie of Omaha and ex-Mayor W. A. Bellick of Lincoln. Mr. Lowrie congratulated the business interests of Omaha and Plattsmouth on the opening of the bridge and commended the enterprise and grit of the two men responsible, Messrs. Pollock and Duff, for the results accomplished, saying that it not only increased the territory for Omaha business, but opened a way for the farmer of this territory conveniently to reach a larger market for his produce and fire stock. He closed by moving a vote of

NEW PLATTE BRIDGE OPENED

Omaha Boosters Join with Plattsmouth Men in Celebration.

NEARLY SCORE OF AUTOS ON TRIP

Connecting Link on Omaha-Kansas City Good Road Completed and Citizens from Wide Territory Help Jubilate.

Omaha good roads boosters joyfully stirred the atmosphere at Plattsmouth yesterday afternoon and evening. They went down over the road that has been roughly laid out to connect with the new bridge across the Platte river near Orestopolis, giving a short route into Plattsmouth. Almost a score of automobiles, loaded with Omaha men and women made the trip, and they turned loose in the case county metropolis enough optimism to give a very substantial impetus to the newly awakened spirit of progress now apparent in the old town down the river.

The new bridge is now open for travel and Messrs. Pollock and Duff, the promoters and builders, had declared it free to all for the day. The occasion took on the nature of a holiday for the people of Plattsmouth and the surrounding country and they assembled in the town in large numbers. About everybody who had an automobile or a team made the trip out to the new bridge and went over the structure and back, for good luck.

Bridge Fine Structure

The bridge is a solid, well built piece of work. Nothing remains to be done except to finish some grading at either end and complete the toll house of the bungalow style at the Plattsmouth end. Toll will be collected from now on and will be paid willingly by the people of Nebraska and Cass counties and by automobilists, since it affords a short cut and makes the connecting link for the proposed Omaha-Kansas City good road. Plattsmouth expects to profit largely by the opening of the bridge and every live citizen of the place is rejoicing over the completion of the bridge.

When the Omaha delegation had arrived, shortly after 2 o'clock, the main streets of Plattsmouth presented a lively spectacle and things began to hum. T. Herbert Pollock and Ralph A. Duff, the men who built the bridge, had the assistance of the Plattsmouth Commercial club, the girls and other citizens in making everybody welcome. Lincoln had also sent a small delegation of citizens and men interested in good roads were present from about every town within fifty miles of Plattsmouth. Nebraska City, where Mr. Duff resides, sent a trainload, accompanied by a band. After the crowd of automobiles had been lined up for pictures the throng was headed for the opera house, where a meeting was held to permit the good roads enthusiasts to hold forth.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Charges that the Peoples Gas, Light and Coke company had obtained a temporary injunction against the city from Federal Judge C. C. Kohlsaat by "misrepresentation" were made from the bench today by Judge Scanlan in the circuit court. The misrepresentation, he said, consisted in a misstatement of a decision he had rendered in the gas case.

Judge Scanlan asked the city to seek a dissolution of the injunction from the United States circuit court and declared that he believed Judge Kohlsaat would dissolve the injunction when he learned he had been deceived.

Australian Woman Claims the Title to Atchison, Kansas

ATCHISON, Kan., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Elizabeth Atchison of Sidney, N. S. W., in a letter to Mayor Walker of this city, received today, claims ownership of Atchison and all that is in it. The land upon which the city is built before the "Louisiana purchase," she says, was given to "David T. Atchison, of whom she asserts she is a descendant, for his valiant service at the battle of Waterloo."

The Atchison heirs, the Australian woman declares, have perfected their plans to carry the case into the courts of this country and England. She states that this city was named for her ancestor of Waterloo fame, but in this she is mistaken. The city was named for Senator David R. Atchison of Missouri.

ALDRICH ON STATES' RIGHTS

Nebraska Governor Addresses Trans-Mississippi Congress.

WOULD LIMIT MINOR COURTS

Executive Suggests that Appeal to Federal Courts on Traffic Matters Be Made from State Supreme Court.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 15.—Today was "Governor's day" at the Transmississippi commercial congress, three state executives—Harmon of Ohio, Aldrich of Nebraska and Stubbs of Kansas—addressed the delegates. In addition, United States Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma delivered an eloquent plea for the conservation of the nation's health and the establishment of a government health bureau.

Governor Aldrich of Nebraska, in his address concerning the right of the states to control intrastate traffic rates, laid down some fundamental propositions upon which to base his arguments. He showed the facts and figures that in the case of the fixing and establishing of passenger and freight and express rates in his own state that the railroads and common carriers were on a more prosperous business basis today than ever before, that they had declared larger dividends than at any prior time and that the relations between the public and the common carriers were friendly and confidential and that if this situation was changed and the old bitterness should be renewed, the minor federal courts, which are continually interfering with state laws, alone would be responsible.

He charged an unwarranted assumption of authority on the part of minor federal courts in nullifying state government and as a remedy to these abuses suggested the following:

Would Limit Minor Federal Courts

"Let congress pass a law limiting the jurisdiction of these minor federal courts; take away from them the authority to enjoin state officers from the enforcement of state statutes. This would give each state supreme court today jurisdiction in applications to enjoin the enforcement of a state law; let the appeal go directly from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court. In this way, the well known abuse of ex-parte hearing for the purpose of nullifying state laws on the part of this minor federal judiciary would be done away with.

"Congress, by statute, created these courts, gave them the jurisdiction which they now enjoy, and congress has the right, of course, to limit this jurisdiction.

The supreme court of the United States is largely an appellate court, having original jurisdiction only in cases affecting ambassadors or other public ministers or consuls and those in which the state shall be a party. In all other matters the United States supreme court has appellate jurisdiction with the exception and under such regulation as congress shall make.

Government by Injunction

"This court has many times held that in the question of restraining state officers from enforcing state laws, that the state officers were not a part of the state to avoid the prohibition that a state cannot be sued and have allowed state officers, as individuals, to be enjoined. Then, if this remedy which I suggest should be carried out, government by injunction insofar as the enjoining of state officers in the enforcement of a state statute is concerned, would be done away with.

"The greatest abuse in government by injunction generally is to be found in the willingness of these minor federal courts to enjoin state officers in the enforcement of a state statute when it has to do with the regulation of a public service corporation. For a great many years last past these courts have so effectively interfered with the right of the state in regulating rates for transportation of persons and property that the state traffic in this regard has been placed wholly at the mercy of the common carriers and they have even practically no regulation whatever."

Sanborn Decision Analyzed

"Then the governor took up the famous Sanborn decision in the recent Minnesota rate case and analyzed the opinion carefully and minutely, following the same line of argument that he did at the governors' conference, and concluded as follows:

"And in concluding my remarks on this Sanborn decision, I say, first, that it is unjust and unsound.

"Second, that it has failed to look into

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Plans for the distribution of stock of the thirty-four subsidiary companies of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey to conform with the mandate of the United States supreme court were made public today. Door Nips Dog; New Face in Dog Heaven

Deribioned poodle dogs in leash and the patent revolving doors in the federal building do not mix, or rather they do mix, but to the disadvantage of the be-ribboned poodle. Mrs. I. A. Pierson, wife of a Council Bluffs real estate dealer, found this out to her sorrow when she entered the postoffice yesterday dragging her pet behind her.

The dog was not educated in the operation of the revolving storm doors and attempted to squeeze in with his mistress. He got his head in the compartment just as a Council Bluffs real estate dealer from the inside. Hyattspora, who heard the swan song emitted by the dog in the form of a long drawn out howl knew that the St. Peter of dog heaven had opened the gates for another dog soul passed from this life. It was thought that its neck was broken.
